ELDERS DO SOME HITTING

BUT THEY ARE OVERWHELMED IN THE SLAUGHTER.

+++++++++++++++++++++++ RESULTS YESTERDAY. Boise 12, Salt Lake 7.

Ogden 9, Spokane O.

Sure, Captain Tom was full of grief, As runs piled up past all belief. "Now, this," quoth he, "is pretty tough! You'd think they'd some time get enough!" He wandered off and sat him down,— The saddest man in Zion town.

He wandered off and sat him down, The saddest man in Zion town.

Home again!

There is nothing surprising about it. Nor is there reason to believe the Elders will move up again until some new material appears on the scene. The grewsome tragedies of Thursday and yesterday might have been expected. Nothing but first quality pitching would enable the present makeshift team to beat an organized club and that grade of pitching, unhappily, has not been in evidence.

And the support was nothing to throw a fit over, either. But at that the Boise lads can't call names, for they had about as bad a case of the flapdoodles in the sixth inning as one often sees. About one more gentle shove and they would have been over the brink for the day.

Aside from the riotous doings of the sixth and seventh lunings there wasn't much worth telling. The sixth opened with the score 5 to 0 in favor of Boise Them, with two men gone. Hahn and Haynes drove out singles and Hodson walked Carney and Stickney, forcing Hahn home. Delmas brought in two more with a two-base drive into left and O'Brien's single scored another. An effort to nail O'Brien at second missed and Delmas scored on it incidental to a collision with Honus Hanson. As the ball was being hurled violently about from corner to corner, O'Brien Improved each shining minute and was roosting at third when order was restored. Thornton's single scored lim, making six for the ining, and putting Salt Lake one to the good.

Athletics 5, Detroit 2.

Detroit, May 26.—Bender's pitching was natirely upon the grounds of Hammond to make them submit. At one time they appeared to be on the point of leaving the field in a jody. This drew forth a hot medicine talk from the league president and at length the game was resumed.

Schils beat the throw in on Knox's grounder, while McIntyre, who had stolen second, went to third on it. Riggs scored McIntyre with a hit and joined Knox in a beautiful double steal. Hanson's single brought them in, making it 9 to 6. The decision on Knox's safety at third was a close one and drew forth a yell from Carney, but he won nothing by it.

A double, two singles, a walk and another pair of steals won Boise three more in the eighth.

The final result of the completed game was: Ogden 8, Spokane 6.

The Indians went on the warpath in the sixth incling after Setley had ordered Martinke off the reservation and the offending brave remained in the midst of a powwow.

All in all, it was a disagreeable wrangle and spoiled what might have been an interesting game. If was an off day for Spokane and they began to play wild at turned. This did not quiet the disturbance and setley walked to the front of the grand stand and declared the game forfeited by a score of 9 to 6. Afterwards the two nanagers, Gimlin and Stanley, got together and agreed to continue the game is an exhibition one, so as to give the Turney William Setley gave the following statement of his action to The Herald:
